The screenshot displays two overlapping web browser windows. The background window is titled 'Grolier Online - Microsoft Internet Explorer' and shows a news article dated May 20, 2002, titled 'The Space Station Is One Busy Place!'. The article includes a photo of an astronaut and text about the International Space Station (ISS) construction. The foreground window is titled 'Work Sheet - Microsoft Internet Explorer' and shows a 'NBK News® Work Sheet' for the article. It contains instructions to print and answer questions as the user reads the article. The questions are:

- How long will the ISS's new "backbone" be when it is complete?
- How many space walks did astronauts make during the Atlantis mission?
- How long has the current ISS crew been aboard?

The worksheet also includes a date field for 'Tuesday, June'.
